

PROGRAMME

Portugal: Reform and Growth within the Euro Area

25 March 2019

08h45 Registration

09h15 Opening speech

Carlos da Silva Costa, Governor, Banco de Portugal

09h30 SESSION 1

Institutional reform in the euro area

Moderator: Wolfgang Munchau, Associate Editor, Financial Times

Agnès Bénassy-Quéré, Professor, Paris School of Economics

Benoît Coeuré, Member of the Executive Board, European Central Bank

Poul Thomsen, Director of the European Department, IMF

10h45 Coffee break

11h15 SESSION 2

The current recovery: where does Portugal stand?

Moderator: Pedro Santos Guerreiro, Editor in Chief, Expresso

Alfredo Cuevas, Mission Chief for Portugal, IMF

Ricardo Reis, AW Phillips Professor of Economics, London School of Economics

Teodora Cardoso, President, Portuguese Public Finance Council, February 2012 to February 2019

12h15 Keynote Speech

David Lipton, First Deputy Managing Director, IMF

12h45 Lunch

14h30 SESSION 3

Labor and product market challenges

Moderator: Helena Garrido, Journalist

Fátima Barros, Associate Professor, Católica Lisbon School of Business and Economics

Mário Jorge Machado, CEO, Têxteis Adalberto

Stéphane Carcillo, Head of the Jobs and Income Division, OECD

15h30 SESSION 4

Financial sector: recovery and challenges

Moderator: Clara Raposo, Dean, Lisbon School of Economics & Management (ISEG)

Fernando Faria de Oliveira, President, Portuguese Banking Association

Peter Grasmann, Head of Unit, EU/Euro area financial system, Directorate-General for Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union, European Commission

Mahmood Pradhan, Deputy Director of the European Department, IMF

16h30 Closing Speech

Mário Centeno, President, Eurogroup