1/ Data for 2001 include US$28.5 million capital expenditure financed from a retroactive loan from the Central Bank of The Gambia (CBG), which the authorities indicate in October 2003 had not been recorded in official accounts.

2/ Includes loan disbursements (D 287.8 million in January and D 94.7 million in April) from Taiwan Province of China for electricity generators and improvement of distribution network. The generators were delivered to the National Water and Electricity Corporation in October 2001. The inflows were used to pay the suppliers.

3/ Domestic revenue minus total expenditure and net lending, excluding interest payments and externally financed capital expenditure.

1/ Data for 2001 include US$28.5 million capital expenditure financed by a retroactive loan by the Central Bank of The Gambia (CBG), which the authorities indicated in October 2003 had not been recorded in official accounts.

2/ Includes loan disbursements (D 287.8 million in January and D 94.7 million in April) from Taiwan Province of China for electricity generators and improvement of distribution network. The generators were delivered to the National Water and Electricity Corporation in October 2001. The inflows were used to pay the supplier.

3/ Domestic revenue minus total expenditure and net lending, excluding interest payments and externally financed capital expenditure.

1/ Valued at current exchange rates.

2/ Excluding advances to the government in foreign currencies.

3/ These advances reflect previously unrecorded public spending and borrowing in 2001, financed by the Central Bank of The Gambia (CBG), and the previously unrecorded depletion of foreign exchange reserves in 2001-03 as reported by the authorities on October 28, 2003.

4/ In March 2003, the government instructed the CBG to lend the equivalent of D 137 million in U.S. dollars to a newly created public enterprise for a seismic survey of offshore oil deposits.

5/ Claims on foreign exchange bureaus reflect the delayed delivery of foreign currency purchased on a spot basis.

The Gambia: Summary of Tax System¹

(As of December 31, 2004)

(All amounts in dalasis)

Tax	Nature of Tax	Exemptions and Deductions	Rates
1. Taxes on net income and profits
1.1 Taxes on companies and Corporations (company tax)	Tax on companies having income accruing in, derived from, brought into, or received in The Gambia. “Company” is defined as any company or corporation incorporated or registered in The Gambia or elsewhere. Profit of a life insurance company is defined as investment income less management expenses (including commission). Where premiums are received outside The Gambia, the profit is taken to be the same proportion of the company's total investment income as The Gambia premiums bear to the total premiums, less The Gambia agency expenses and a fair proportion of the head office expenses. For other insurance companies having profits arising partly outside The Gambia, the profit for tax purposes is based on the gross premiums, interest, and other income received or receivable in The Gambia (adjusted for premiums returned, reinsurances, and unexpired risks). The actual losses, agency expenses in The Gambia, and a fair proportion of head office expenses are	Income exempted includes the income or profits of (a) a local authority, district authority, government institution; the Central Bank of The Gambia; (b) a registered cooperative society; (c) an ecclesiastical, charitable, or educational institution of a public character where such income is not derived from a trade or business; (d) a body of persons (which excludes companies and partnerships) formed for the purpose of promoting social or sporting amenities not involving gain by the body or its members; (e) a registered trade union insofar as such income is not derived from a trade or business; (f) the operation of ships or aircraft carried on by a nonresident person subject to an equivalent exemption being granted by the country of his residence to persons resident in The Gambia; and (g) the investment income of an approved pension or provident society fund. Deductions allowed include (a) the written-down value (after deductions for depreciation) of plant, machinery, or fixtures	35 percent of net profits or 2 percent of turnover, whichever is higher. Provision is made for an initial allowance of 25 percent of the capital expenditure on the construction of works and 20 percent for plant and machinery, and an annual allowance for any qualifying expenditure of 4 percent or 15 percent determined according to a special formula. There is also a balancing allowance on the sale by a going concern of any assets representing qualifying expenditure equal to the excess, if any, of the residual of the expenditure on those assets over the proceeds of their sale. Conversely, a balancing charge applies on the amount by which the proceeds exceed the residual. The full profits of a nonresident ship-owner or charterer arising from the carriage of passengers, mail, livestock, or goods shipped in The Gambia are taxable there, except where the profits arise from passengers, brought in solely for transhipment, or from a casual call. Similar provisions apply to the profits of air transport and cable and wireless telegraph undertakings carried on by	sold or discarded, less any sum realized by the sale of an asset (or its market value if greater). 1.2	Taxes on individuals
1.2.1	Individual income tax	Tax on income accruing in, derived from, brought into, or received in The Gambia. Temporary residents who have no intention of establishing residence, and who have not resided in The Gambia for a period equal in aggregate to six months in the year of assessment, are not taxed on income arising outside and received in The Gambia. Income, wherever received, from any employment exercised in The Gambia is treated as having been derived there. The income other than the earned income of a married woman living with her husband is deemed to be the income of her husband. The earned income of a married woman is assessed in her hands separately. Income includes (a) gains or profits from any trade, profession, or vocation; (b) gains or profits from any employment including allowances paid in money other than reimbursements for expenditure actually incurred, but excluding (i) the value of any quarters or residence if the	Exemptions include (a) the official salaries and emoluments of the President (and his leave emoluments) or acting President and diplomatic staff; (b) certain lump sums received by way of retirement or death gratuities arising out of compensation schemes, and any sums payable to public officers as a gratuity under any contract or service agreement; (c) lump sums withdrawn by individuals on retirement from any pension, provident, or other approved society or fund; (d) wound and disability pensions granted to members of Commonwealth forces; (e) pensions granted under certain legislation concerning widows and orphans; (f) the income of bona fide students in full-time attendance at a school, training center, etc.; (g) certain emoluments payable to noncitizens under an agreement with another government organization, etc., for technical assistance; etc.; and (h) income from employment, trade, business, or profession exercised outside The Gambia and received therein. Standard allowance: D7,500.

employee earns less than D625 a month or is employed by a government or quasi-government corporation, etc., or approved non-profit-making institution, and (ii) the value of any passage from or to The Gambia provided by the employer and the amount of any reimbursement of expenses actually incurred; (c) dividends, interest, or discounts—the income of a shareholder in a company controlled by not more than five persons may be deemed to include undistributed income of the company; (d) pensions, charges, or annuities; (e) rents, royalties, premiums, and any other profits arising from property, but excluding the annual value of owner-occupied property; and (f) income arising outside The Gambia and brought therein, except accumulated and taxed profits abroad.	A standard deduction of D7,500 is allowed to every taxpayer, starting January 1993.	For residential properties, a withholding tax of 10 percent of gross rents is applied. "Assessable income" is income from all sources, excluding exempt income and after permitted deductions; "total income" is assessable income less any offset for losses; and "chargeable income" is total income less allowances for individuals.	The amount of a loss incurred by the taxpayer in the year of assessment in any trade, business, profession, or vocation is deductible from assessable income in determining total income, providing it is claimed within 12 months after the end of the year of assessment. There is provision for the carry-forward of any loss not allowed against assessable income up to a

The tax rate chargeable on the income of companies for the year of assessment within which the due date for payment of the interest falls (35 percent). The rate paid or payable by the company on the assessed income of the year of assessment within which the dividend is declared payable (35 percent).
	Tax is levied for the year of assessment ending on December 31 upon the income of the same calendar year, or the accounting year ended in the preceding year. There are special provisions for allocating the income in respect of the commencement and cessation of a business, employment, etc. Partners are required to make a joint return in respect of their partnership income, but they are liable to tax only in their separate, individual capacities.	(a) Monthly deductions from public emoluments, subject to adjustment when the liability is finally determined. Any other employer is obliged to collect the tax payable by an employee in monthly installments, as prescribed by the Commissioner; (b) persons paying mortgage or debenture interest, deductible in ascertaining their income to nonresidents; (c) companies resident in The Gambia on dividends paid to shareholders (the

4. Taxes on international trade and transactions
4.1 Import duties	Tax on value of imported goods to be declared on customs entries. Normally for goods imported under a contract of sale negotiated in fully open market conditions, the value is represented by the price made under that contract, adjusted as necessary to a c.i.f. basis. Items are identified by the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System identify items.	General exemptions include goods in transit; goods for use as aircraft's or ship's stores; advertising material having no commercial value as such; mosquito-proof gauze and netting; personal effects; certain goods imported by, or on behalf of, the government, privileged persons (within prescribed limits), and institutions; and certain goods (building materials, plant, and machinery) purchased by the holders of development certificates during their tax holiday period.	For all goods, there is one unified tariff rate irrespective of country of origin, ranging from 0 percent to 18 percent. Generally, luxury goods are charged an excise tax, in addition to the maximum duty rate. These commodities include liquor, cigarettes, and vehicles. Effective January 2003, excise taxes (revenue tax) are charged at D50/kg net for cigarettes, D25/liter for beer, D50/liter for wine spirit, D5/liter for mineral water, soft drinks, and canned fruit, and 5 percent of the c.i.f. value for vehicles. As per end-2003, these taxes are not levied on domestic goods.
4.1.1 Customs duties	If there is no invoice, the value is the price that the goods would fetch on sale in the open market in The Gambia, including freight, insurance, commission, and all other costs up to the port or place of importation.	A levy of sales tax on the total earnings of lawyers was introduced effective August 1998.	An environmental tax is charged on non-manufactured tobacco at D13.02/kg, and at D1,000 for used motor vehicles.
