Public Invitation

LAUNCHING EVENT OF THE APRIL 2011 REPORT “REGIONAL ECONOMIC OUTLOOK FOR SUB-SAHARAN AFRICA” “RECOVERY AND NEW RISKS”

Date Monday, May 30, 2011
Time 2:00 p.m.
Venue Amphitheater from the Pedagogical Complex at UEM, University Campus.

This report, recently launched by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) in Washington, contains a comprehensive and detailed assessment of the recent economic developments of the continent's Sub-Saharan region. It also delivers an analysis of short and medium-term economic perspectives and provides policy recommendations for the authorities in the region.

The event is open to the public in general, and particularly to the academia (lecturers and students), senior officials from public institutions, development partners, private sector and civil society. The report will be presented by the IMF Resident Representative in Mozambique, while it will be moderated and commented by lecturers from the Faculty of Economics at UEM.
