

北京大学国家发展研究院
National School of Development

INTERNATIONAL
MONETARY FUND
国际货币基金组织

SYMPOSIUM ON CHINA'S REFORM AND GROWTH

Hosted by: National School of Development, Peking University &
The International Monetary Fund, Resident Representative Office for China

Time: Thursday, September 11, 2014, 1:30—5:30 p.m.

Venue: Classroom No.1, Wanzhong Building, Lang Run Garden, Peking University

Welcome and introduction

Yao Yang, Dean, National School of Development, PKU

Alfred Schipke, Senior Resident Representative, IMF

Session 1: What is China's current growth potential?

Chair: Alfred Schipke (IMF)

Lead speakers (15 minutes each)

Lu Yang, Associate Research Fellow, Institute of Population and Labor Economics, CASS

Zhang Bin, Senior Fellow, Institute of World Economics and Politics, CASS

Yao Yang, Dean, National School of Development, PKU

Discussants (7 minutes each)

He Dong, Executive Director (Research), Hong Kong Monetary Authority

Wei Zhichao, Macro Analyst, Guotai Jun'an Securities

Huang Yiping, Professor, National School of Development, PKU

Session 2: What should be the growth target for 2015?

Chair: Yao Yang (PKU)

Lead speakers (15 minutes each)

Markus Rodlauer, Deputy Director, Department of Asia and Pacific, IMF

Naoyuki Yoshino, Dean, Asian Development Bank Institute

Justin Lin, Honorary Dean, National School of Development, PKU

Discussants (7 minutes each)

Yu Yongzhen, Deputy Division Chief, Comprehensive Department, Ministry of Finance

Ma Xiaoping, China Economist, HSBC

Lu Feng, Director, China Macroeconomic Research Center, NSD, PKU