

Ms. Atalina Ainuu Enari, Governor of the Central Bank of Samoa

Ms. ENARI was appointed in July 2011 Governor of the Central Bank of Samoa and became the first Samoan woman to hold that position. Ms ENARI has been with the Central Bank for over 20 years, starting her career with the Bank as an Economist in the Research and Statistics Department, moving to the International Department as Senior Economist and Assistant Manager, until she became Manager of the newly established Financial Markets Department in 2000.
