

Epa Tuioti, Chairman of the National Bank of Samoa, Deputy Chairman of the Pacific Islands Private Sector Organisation (PIPSO)

Epa Tuioti is the Co-Managing Director and Principal Consultant with business partner Kolone Vaai of KVAConsult Limited, an ISO 9001:2008 certified consultancy firm established in the Pacific in 1990 that provides expert financial management, economic and public policy advice. Epa is an economist, institutional and good governance expert with extensive leadership experience in public sector reforms and various national and regional consultancies for both the public and private sectors. Former Financial Secretary to the Government of Samoa (1991-1999), Epa is the current Chairman of the National Bank of Samoa and Deputy Chairman of the Pacific Islands Private Sector Organisation (PIPSO). Epa was the Team Leader for the Review of the Pacific Islands Centre (PIC), Tokyo, Japan and the Pacific Islands Forum Trade Office (PIFTO) in Beijing, China; Co-Team Leader/Institutional Reform Expert in the Samoa Public Works Institutional Reform and Asset Management Services (PIRAMS) Project funded by the World Bank; and team member for the Joint Review of the Australian Aid Programme to Papua New Guinea. Prior to his role as Financial Secretary, Epa worked in the Office of the Executive Director for the Asian Development Bank (ADB) in Manila and is a former President of the Samoa Chamber of Commerce and Industry