

CURRICULUM VITAE

Family name: Papadia
Name: Francesco
Borne: May 2nd 1947
Borne in: Rome – Italy
Married with 3 children

Professional life

Senior Resident Fellow of Bruegel, Chair of Prime Collateralised Securities, Chair of the Selection Panel of the Hellenic Financial Stability Fund. Lecturing at the University of Rome (LUISS).

June 1998- May 2012 Director General for Market Operations at the European Central Bank.

1988 – 1994 Director of the International Section of the Research Department of Banca d'Italia.

1984 – 1988 Head of Division in the Monetary Section of the Research Department of Banca d'Italia.

1980 – 1983 Economic Adviser at the European Commission.

1974 – 1979 Economist in the Research Department of Banca d'Italia.

Studies

1970 Degree in Law, University of Rome, Dissertation in Public Finance.

1970-1973 Postgraduate Studies in Economics at Istao, Ancona

1973 - 1974 Master's Programme at the London Business School

1982, 1987 Visiting scholar for six weeks for the two years at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Publications: Published many articles and books on monetary economics, international economics, international finance, economic development.