

Professor Tan Kim Song is currently a faculty member at the School of Economics, Singapore Management University (SMU). Before joining the SMU, he was a managing director at Bank Boston Financial, having also worked with other investment banks including Chase Manhattan and others, primarily in the fixed income markets. Prior to that, he worked as a senior correspondent in the Straits Times, the national English newspaper in Singapore, covering political, economic and business issues in the Asia Pacific region. In addition to his work at the SMU, Prof. Tan is also active in advisory work and private equity related businesses in the region, especially in the Mekong region and in China. Prof Tan received his B. Economics (First Class Honors) from Adelaide University, and his PhD from Yale University.